IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Michele Leuthauser
Plaintiff

v.

United States of America
- and -
Anita Serrano
Defendants

Case 20-CV-479 (JCM) (VCF)

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to the Court's August 25th and September 6th, 2023 Orders¹ (ECF Nos. 113 & 115), Plaintiff submits the following status report.

Defendants have noted that when the Court reviewed its Motion for Summary Judgment, the Court stopped at the sovereign immunity argument, and has requested that the Court now review the remaining arguments. Status Report, ECF No. 116. But its remaining arguments are near-frivolous. Plaintiff has alleged that a TSA screener penetrated her vagina with her finger during a "pat-down" gone wrong. TSA screeners are obviously not privileged, and do not have "discretion," to conduct body cavity searches, as Defendants' motion has argued.

Plaintiff's position, therefore, is that this case is ready for trial, pending a final pre-trial order and conference.

¹ Due to a filing error that briefly went unnoticed, this document was filed after the deadline set by the Court. The undersigned counsel apologizes to the Court for this tardiness.
